

Full programme as at January 20, 2020

Radical Statistics annual conference

February 28 and 29 2020

Pre-conference gathering, Thursday February 27 2020

Norfolk Arms, 28 Leigh Street. WC1H 9EP

Meet from 7pm for a pre-conference drink and /or meal.

Friday February 28 2020

St Luke's Centre, 90 Central Street, London EC1V 8AJ

Radical Statistics conference: "Learning from the Past to Build a Better Future".

9am Coffee and registration

9.30 Anne Laure Humbert & Rachael McIlroy. Paid equally badly? Gender and pay in the nursing profession

Greg Dropkin. RightCare: wrong answers

Anna Powell-Smith. Missing Numbers: the statistics we don't collect

11.00 Coffee

11.30 Lynn McDonald. Florence Nightingale and Statistics: What She Did and What She Did Not

Eileen Magnello. (Keynote Discussant) Florence Nightingale: The Radical and Passionate Statistician

12.30-2.00 Lunch

2.00pm Danny Dorling. The UK health crisis

Andrew Street. Revisiting Nightingale's vision to assess the outcomes of hospital treatment.

3.00 Tea

3.30 Dave Byrne. The IFS Deaton Review: Inequalities in the Twenty-First Century.

Paul Marchant. 'Bad Stats' depletes the public purse

4:30 Jeff Evans, Humphrey Southall, Tina Beattie. Data in Society: Radical Statistics' new book

6.00 Post conference drinks and meal

The Iskele, 179-181 Whitecross St, London EC1Y 8QP

<http://www.theiskele.com/>

The meal will not be block-booked. Please pay individually. It is possible to go to the Iskele for a drink even if you are not staying for a meal.

Saturday January 29

Where now for Radical Statistics in an age of globalisation and populism?

St Luke's Centre, 90 Central Street, London EC1V 8AJ

9.00 Coffee and registration

9.30 Radical Statistics in an age of globalisation and populism

Discussion led by the editorial team of Data in Society, based on ideas in Part VI of the book. Contributions are invited from Jonathan Rosenhead, a founder member of BSSRS and from members of newer groups whose concerns overlap with those of Radical Statistics.

10.45 Tea / coffee

11.00 Future organisation of Radical Statistics to respond to these challenges

Discussion of report of Radical Statistics Commission on future organisation.

12.00 Radical Statistics AGM

1.00pm Lunch

This is not included in the meeting but St Luke's popular Central C open and is a convivial place to continue discussions informally.

Plans are being made for a Florence Nightingale walk in the afternoon. Details will be available nearer the time.

Booking details

To book, go to:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/learning-from-the-past-to-build-a-better-future-tickets-82174087909>