Murdoch University is the only Australian University to achieve a 5-star rating for Graduate Satisfaction • 1994 - 1998

M.Phil Scholarship in Tourism Planning

- Social Sciences
- Planning
- Tourism
- Economics

Murdoch University in conjunction with the Great Southern Development Commission have developed an exciting hands-on research development project to establish a Heritage Trail through the Central Great Southern.

Candidates with expertise in the above areas should also have a commitment and understanding of rural and tourism development, and will require excellent communication and community planning skills. This unique and exciting development project offers flexible research conditions, no cost rural based accommodation, fuel and relocation expenses.

Standard conditions for postgraduate scholarship apply, with the opportunity to transfer to PhD status following completion of the 18 month project.

For further information on this project, contact Jim Macbeth on 9360 7005 or j.macbeth@murdoch.edu.au or for an application form, contact Anne Randell on 9360 6506 or randell@central.murdoch.edu.au
