

Lecturer/ Senior Lecturer - Department of Psychology

Full Time/Continuing

Footscray Park Campus

Ref. No. 02C325

Salary: $54,448 - $76,906

The Department is currently seeking to fill one position at the Lecturer (Level B) or Senior Lecturer (Level C) level to contribute to the community psychology and qualitative research methods programs. The position is offered on a continuing basis to begin on or before 2 March 2003. This position will be based at the Footscray Park Campus.

For the Lecturing position we welcome applications from candidates who have obtained a doctoral degree including graduate study in community psychology or a closely related area of psychology (e.g. evaluation research methods, critical psychology). Applicants for the Senior Lecturing position should have, in addition to the doctoral degree, a substantial research record.

The person appointed will contribute to the teaching of courses in community psychology and qualitative research methods, and supervise students in independent research projects and thesis research. Ability to supervise postgraduate practicum placements is desirable. The person will assume significant responsibility for the oversight of qualitative research methods components across undergraduate and postgraduate programs, including the Social Research Methods major.

The successful applicant will hold a Doctoral level qualification in Psychology and be eligible for membership of the Australian Psychological Society. She/He must have tertiary teaching experience and demonstrate the capacity to teach into both the community psychology program and qualitative research methods subjects at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. Applicants must have a substantial record of successful completion of research activities, at least some of which falls within the themes "Wellness promotion" and/or "Social Diversity and Community Wellbeing." We seek applicants with a strong commitment to supporting the professional development of students in working effectively and constructively in diverse settings.

All applicants must specifically address how they meet the selection criteria as described in the position description.

For further information regarding the position, contact Dr Wally Karnilowicz on 9365 2381.

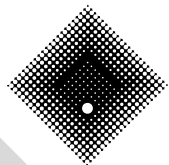

Please obtain a copy of the position description and application information from our web site <http://w2.vu.edu.au/hr/employment> or by contacting (03) 9688 4867. Forward written applications, preferably two copies, quoting the relevant reference number and stating the names and contact telephone numbers of two referees to Personnel Services, Footscray Park Campus.

Closing Date: 13 December 2002.
