More information is available in the ICON9 web page <http://www.cneuro.edu.cu/icon9>

Funding news!

The International Brain Research Organization will fund 7 young scientists wishing to participate in ICON9. Requirements for application are available in ICON9 web page. Applications FROM scientists from less developed or less well funded countries are encouraged. The ACAL (Latin America Academy of Sciences) will offer partial economical support for the participation of scientists working in Latin American countries. Applications should be sent to ICON9 Organizing Committee.
