

Call for Papers 4th INFINITI Conference International Financial Integration

Institute for International Integration Studies, Dublin, Ireland
12-13 June 2006

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Mark Flannery, University of Florida

Peter Richmond, University of Dublin

Announcement

The Institute for International Integration Studies, Trinity College Dublin is pleased to announce the 4th INFINITI Conference.

Papers in all areas of international finance will be welcomed, with a special call for papers that address aspects of international financial integration. Indicative topics include, but are not limited to

- Accounting and regulatory convergence
- Banking and financial Services in integrated markets
- Behavioural aspects of international financial markets
- Corporate governance issues
- Econophysics of international finance
- Emerging markets and privatization Issues
- Financial engineering and derivatives
- Global financial crises
- Global risk markets
- Interest and exchange rates
- International asset market comovements
- International portfolio diversification
- International asset pricing
- Islamic finance
- Markets and exchanges in a globalized environment
- Multinational financial management
- Regionalization and globalization in international finance
- Volatility determination and transmission

Proposals for special sessions, roundtables and panel discussions are also welcome.

Keynote Speakers

The Keynote Speaker will be Professor Mark Flannery, University of Florida.

An Invited Lecture on Econophysics of International Finance will be delivered by Professor Peter Richmond of Trinity College, Dublin.

A Special Session on Political Responses to Financial Contagion will be moderated by Professor Dusan Mramor, previously Minister of Finance of the Republic of Slovenia.

Location and Date

The conference will take place on Monday 12th and Tuesday 13th June 2006 in Trinity College Dublin.

Publication Opportunities

A special issue of Journal of Multinational Financial Management on the theme of Measuring and Managing Contagion will be published under the Guest Editorship of the conference organizer. Papers will go through the usual journal review process prior to selection for inclusion in the special issue and the normal submission fee will apply.

An edited volume “Econophysics: Linking Physics to Financial Market Analysis and Macroeconomic Modelling” will also be produced, under the editorship of Brian Lucey, Peter Richmond (University of Dublin) and Jonathan Batten (Macquarie University).

Important Dates

10th February 2006: Paper submission closed

10th March 2006: Notification of acceptance

12th April 2006: Last date for early registration

More detailed information, instructions on how to submit papers, conference costs, etc are to be found at http://www.tcd.ie/Business_Studies/research/conf_sem/index.php or

<http://www.tcd.ie/iiis/pages/events/infiniti2006.php>

Organizing Committee

Brian Lucey

Svitlana Voronkova

Charles Larkin

Linda Soriton

Gail Weadick

For inquiries, please contact

Conference Organizer: Brian Lucey, blucey@tcd.ie, or

Conference Administrator: Linda Soriton, soritonl@tcd.ie