

One Day Conference

British Sociological Association
Medical Sociology Group Scotland
Researching Social Life: celebrating 60 years of medical sociology

Friday 2nd December 2005 • 10am - 4.30pm

City Chambers • Edinburgh

Delegate fee £70***

Morning Programme

	Speakers	Chair Dr Mike Hepworth (University of Aberdeen)
10.00	Registration and coffee
10.30	Professor Robert Dingwall (University of Nottingham) Interactionism in medical sociology since 1951
11.15	Dr Edwin R. van Teijlingen (University of Aberdeen) Medical sociology in Aberdeen: the early years
12.00	Professor Paul Atkinson (Cardiff University) Interactionism in perspective
12.45 - 1.30	Buffet Lunch

Afternoon Programme

	Speakers	Chair Dr Alex Dennis (University of Huddersfield)
1.30	Professor Mike Bloor (Glasgow University) What's wrong with ethnography? Then and now
2.15	Dr Ailsa Cook (Glasgow University) Communication in care homes for older people
3.00	Coffee/Tea
3.15	Dr Ann Wakefield (University of Manchester) Reflexive sociology: troubles with commitment to a research project amongst members of the research team
4.00	Open discussion session Professor Linda McKie (Glasgow Caledonian University) & Dr Gill Hubbard (University of Stirling)

Further details and booking:

www.crfr.ac.uk

or contact Laura Marshall on 0131 651 3001
email l.marshall@ed.ac.uk

*There are a few subsidised places for unfunded PhD students and others who are unable to pay the full entry price - please contact us for details.

SPONSORED BY

British Sociological Association

Foundation for the Sociology of Health & Illness