

Mind-the-Gap Project Conference

From Risk to Resilience: Developing an Inclusive Learning Culture for Students with Mental Health Needs

Topics to include:-

- Recruitment, retention, access to the curriculum, learning and inclusive teaching practices
- Transition to Employment
- Risk Assessment: Dealing with Emotional Distress
- Spiritual Resilience
- Developing an Inclusive HE Environment
- Student Experiences
- Mental Health Promotion
- Strategies to Encourage Disclosure
- Coping with Stress and Adversity

Wednesday June 21st 2006

Michael Ashcroft Auditorium,
Anglia Ruskin University,
Chelmsford, Essex.

9.00 am for 9.30 am start – 4.15pm

Find out more about improving results and retaining and supporting students with mental health needs in HE/FE.

Keynote Speaker Professor Nicky Stanley
University of Central Lancashire

'Response and Prevention in Student Suicide'. A major national study.

If you teach in HE/FE, work in Student Support, come into contact with students, have an interest in Mental Health, Widening Participation and Inclusion, are a Mental Health service user/provider or an ex or current student, do come along. Free transport from Cambridge.

Places limited. Last booking by Friday 9th June.

Application form and further information from Charlotte Morris, Mind-the-Gap Project Administrator.
Email: c.morris@anglia.ac.uk or 0845 196 x 2639.

Aimhigher...

www.aimhigher.ac.uk