STEM Club Training

20 July 2006

10am - 4pm

at Harewood House

Are you interested in starting a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering or Maths) children's club in your museum, library or archive ?

This training day will provide you with information and guidance on how to start and run a club.

Creative Minds has produced a comprehensive STEM Club Toolkit giving advice on starting and running a club for children. The day will include the launch of the Creative Minds STEM Club Toolkit, opportunities to talk to those already running clubs in MLAs, funding ideas, child protection and risk assessment issues and an afternoon of hands-on activities which can be run in a club.

This training is free as part of the Creative Minds project, managed by MLA Yorkshire, funded by Yorkshire Forward.

To book at place, please complete and return the booking form, no later than 12 July 2006, to Dena Coe, Creative Minds, MLA Yorkshire, Ground Floor, Marshall Curt, 1 Marshall Street, Leeds, LS11 9YP. Tel: 0113 394 4854 • Fax: 0113 9872 • e-mail:
