Warwick is one of the top Universities in the UK, and Warwick Business School has an international reputation for high quality research and education in both the public and private sectors. WBS received the top 5* ranking in the 2001 RAE, has internationally recognised faculty and high quality students, and is committed to first class research and teaching. The Institute of Governance and Public Management (IGPM) has been set up within WBS as an umbrella for multi-disciplinary research, development and teaching on these themes. Professor Colin Crouch has been recruited to lead forward the next stage in IGPM's development.

You will need a good honours degree, to have completed a PhD in a relevant area (or be close to completion), and an appropriate research portfolio. Applicants for the lectureship must also be committed to imaginative teaching of senior public policymakers and managers on our MPA and Diploma programmes.

Informal enquiries: Professors John Benington or Jean Hartley, tel: 024 7652 4505.

Interview dates: Research Posts – 5 April 2006
Lectureship Post – 11 April 2006

Closing date : 21 March 2006
