

Cartooning for trainers and facilitators

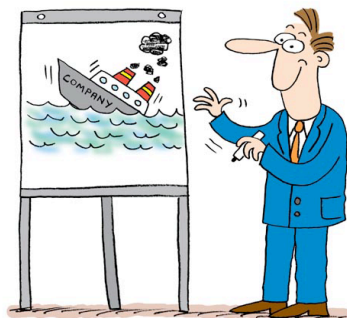

An inspiring day workshop on how to draw – and think – like a cartoonist!

Coming to Glasgow on August 23rd at St Mungo's Museum

10,000 words

One picture

If you'd like to be able to draw your own cartoons to help get your message across, but think you can't draw – this is the workshop for you!

"An engaging day full of learning, new ways of thinking and great fun! I recommend it unreservedly."

Andrena Cumella,
Senior Fellow,
Office for Public
Management

- A hands-on workshop where you will learn the fundamentals of cartoon drawing with an experienced professional cartoonist
- Find out how cartooning and visual thinking can make you a more effective communicator and trainer
- Practical strategies for using cartooning in a variety of settings, from the training room to the board room
- The workshop is led by professional cartoonist Martin Shovel and Martha Leyton of CreativityWorks.

"Every trainer/facilitator should attend this workshop. Invaluable."

Barry Bond, Transition Partners

Course fee: £365 – or £345 if you book before May 19th.

How to book your place - Call us on 01273 249813, email: info@creativityworks.net or download a booking form from: www.creativityworks.net