

ALT Spring Conference and Research Seminar 2006

in association with ILTA and SURF

to be held at Leiden University, the Netherlands.

New connections, new challenges

Conference: Thursday 6 April 2006

9.30am	Registration
10.00am	Opening keynote: Professor Robert-Jan Simons “Are our students changing and what does that mean for ICT in education?”
11.00am	Coffee
11.15am	Parallel sessions 1
	Tools for lifelong learning: identity, movement and standards Leo Waaijers “LOREnet is the answer, what is the question?”	Emerging technologies and the ‘Net Generation’ Scott Wilson “Web 2.0 and the personal learning experience of the net generation”	Digital games: play and simulation Igor Mayer Title to be confirmed.
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Parallel sessions 2
	Harald Haugen and Bodil Ask "Lifelong learning as part of EHEA (European Higher Education Area): collaborative e-learning promotes standardisation and university standards"	Pieter van Parreeren and Nico Juist “The times they are a-changin”	Simon Egenfedt-Nielsen “Going beyond current edutainment”
2.45pm	Coffee
3.00pm	Closing keynote: Professor Angela McFarlane “Alone together; community learning and digital games”
4.00pm	Depart

Steve Warburton, King's College; London