

Making an Impact

with the Wilberforce Learning Package

A free INSET event for KS 3/4 - History, Citizenship and Art Teachers

Monday 19th February 2007, 9:30am – 4:30pm
Wilberforce House Learning Centre, Hull Museums Quarter,
High Street, Hull

Programme Outline

Hull Museum Education presents this unique opportunity to find out more about the issues surrounding the study of slavery and the bicentenary of the passing of the Parliamentary Bill to Abolish the British Slave Trade. Teachers will learn about the on-going support available through a wide variety of learning resources, activities, ideas, and specialist knowledge that support the study of William Wilberforce and the Abolition movement, the Transatlantic Slave Trade and African Culture.

Morning Key Speakers

Jon Pywell - Education and Lifelong Learning Manager Hull Museums
An introduction to Hull Museums Education Service

Wilberforce Project Team

The historical context of the 2007 commemorations and the Wilberforce House redevelopment.

Hull Museum Education Team

The Wilberforce Learning Package for Secondary Schools launching in March 2007.

Alison Bodley – Project Manager ‘Making an Impact’ Partnership Project
Caryl Foulds – Learning Partnerships Manager British Library

Making an Impact project a Citizenship initiative funded by DCMS Strategic Commissioning.

Maria Amidu – Project Development Manager

Understanding Slavery Initiative is a five-year, national education project, funded by DCMS and DfES as part of the Strategic Commissioning.

Lance Boanas, Citizenship AST for Hull

Winifred Hotlby Secondary School project, skills for teaching Citizenship through historical enquiry.

Lunch will be provided. During the lunch break, participants will have the opportunity to meet representatives from various organisations who can provide support and advice.

Afternoon Workshops

Participants will take part in four half hour sessions..

Learning Through Digital Media – A virtual gallery tour

Led by Nick Cass - Artist; Lecturer in Visual Communication; Museum Education Consultant

Dave Lancaster – Technical Manager Hull City Learning Centre

Discover how digital media is being used to enhance learning within Hull Museums. This workshop will provide training on the new handheld PDA's and an overview of the structure of the Learning Journey's, demonstrating how they support pre visit, visit, and post visit learning.

Hull Museums Wilberforce Learning Programme – Arts and Culture

Led by Sarah Howard – Senior Education Officer Hull Museums

Explore art and textiles as a learning resource for teaching culture and diversity.

Wilberforce Learning Programme – Understanding Slavery

Led by Jane Avison – Senior Education Officer Hull Museums

Explore how teaching with objects can enhance learning and support the teaching of controversial subjects. This hands-on workshop uses Hull museums collections and source material to investigate the Transatlantic Slave Trade.

Making an Impact – Documentary Evidence and the British Library

Led by Alison Bodley – Project Manager ‘Making an Impact’

Caryl Foulds – Learning Partnerships Manager British Library

An opportunity to explore the British Library's new Teacher Resource Pack based on documentary evidence developed through the 'Making an Impact' Partnership project.

To book your place, return the slip below
by 5th February to:

Hull Museum Education
35 High Street
Hull
HU1 1NQ

Alternatively fax to: (01482) 318731

Email: jane.avison@hullcc.gov.uk

I would like to attend the Making an Impact INSET day

I am unable to attend this event but would like to be informed of future activities.

Name

School

LEA / District

Postcode

Special Needs / Diet / Access

There is no charge for this event

Free Teacher's INSET Event KS 3/4

Making an Impact

The Wilberforce Learning Package

