

Free Cancer Awareness Sessions for Bengali & Somali Groups

Date: Every Thursday from 1st to 29th
March 2007

Time: 10.00 am — 03.00 pm

Venue: The Brady Centre, 192 Hanbury Street
London E1 5HU

The Afiya Trust in partnership with Cancer Equality and Social Action for Health are pleased to announce free training sessions on promoting cancer awareness for Bengali & Somali people, as well as community workers. Its purpose is to disseminate information and enhance knowledge on cancer specifically tailored to the needs of the target groups. It also aims to empower and build confidence to enable the community to negotiate and influence the quality and delivery of cancer services to ensure it's responsive to their needs.

Who should attend: people affected by cancer, their family members, carers as well as community workers.

Certificate is granted, Lunch provided and travel expenses reimbursed. To get involved and registered on the course or if you have any other queries about the above training sessions, please contact:

Dr Alaa Saraf: 0207 582 0799 (The Afiya Trust)

Showket Ali: 0207 735 7888 (Cancer Equality)

Nirban Chowdhury: 0207 247 1414 (SAfH)

