

UNIONIDEAS
N E T W O R K

A one-day conference

Building stronger unions – organising in the context of global capital

17 May 2007: 10-30–4.30

London Metropolitan University

Calcutta House, Room CS501, Old Castle Street, London E1 7NT

The challenges for unions organising in the context of global capital

- Frances O'Grady, TUC Deputy General Secretary

Global campaigns: organising along supply chains

- Doug Miller, International Textile, Garment and Leather Workers' Federation
- Paula Hamilton, International Transport Workers Federation

Organising in Europe

- Professor Jeremy Waddington, Manchester University
- Bronwyn Mckenna, Director of Organising and Membership, Unison

Organising amongst low paid and subcontracted workers

- Professor Jane Wills, Queen Mary, University of London,
- Martin Smith, National Organiser, GMB

To register, contact Ebony Tapper at the TUC: 020 7467 1361 or email etapper@tuc.org.uk

Union Ideas Network (UIN) is the online website bringing together trade unionists and academics to exchange ideas and information to stimulate debate and support action.

Find out more by registering at www.uin.org.uk