An International Symposium
22 February 2008
City Hall, London, UK

Heritage, Legacy and Leadership:

This groundbreaking symposium will deliver a crucial and dynamic international exchange to explore the issues, thinking, experiences and practices needed to support innovative leadership in the heritage sector. With contributions from a line-up of distinguished speakers, the symposium will create a thought leadership platform with the strategic objective of stimulating, championing and recognising the role and impact of diverse cultural voices on the British heritage landscape.

Two critical themes: Cultural Democracy and Cultural Ownership will be at the core of the discussion. Participants will engage in developing fresh thinking and providing new insights into:

- International leadership and advocacy strategies
- Opportunities for inspiring change
- Techniques for embracing cultural and social shifts
- Empowering BAME narratives and cultural ownership

International Keynote:

Doudou Diène, the United Nations' special rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, will open the symposium with a keynote speech addressing cultural heritage and cultural pluralism.
