

Develop as fast as we can go.

In Southwark, we have big plans for the future – including yours. And you'll thoroughly enjoy the journey, thanks to flexible working, excellent benefits and generous annual leave. What's more, we're deeply committed to diversity and family friendly policies, so you can expect to strike the perfect work/life balance whilst you share the joy of the arts and heritage with people from every walk of life.

Creative Development Manager (Maternity Cover)

£31,350 - £37,323

Hitting the ground running, you will devise imaginative exhibition themes for the Livesey Museum and some exciting educational opportunities for the Cuming Museum, Local History Library and Kingswood House. Your remit will span the management of facilities and people and the leadership of outreach and marketing programmes, demanding a high level of imagination and a proven track record in management within a museum, heritage or visitor experience facility. Ref: EH/1076/CLL

Creative Development Officer

£20,334 - £24,588

Putting your knowledge of contemporary museums and family educational practice to full use, you will really make your mark on the acclaimed Livesey Museum for Children. Every day will bring a different challenge, and you will require a good background in museum, heritage or arts facilities, proven ability to work with children and their families, and basic knowledge of the national curriculum. Ref: EH/1074/CLLL

Culture Development Officer

£28,494 - £33,777

Advancing arts, museums and heritage services across Southwark, you will play a central role in financial management, grant funding and partnership projects. Passionate about the arts and heritage agenda, you're experienced in frontline delivery roles – and you're ready to deliver some high profile programmes in an exciting multicultural environment. Ref: EH/1075/CLLL

For more information or to apply online, please visit www.jobsatsouthwark.co.uk

Closing date: 17 December 2007.

www.jobsatsouthwark.co.uk