

Pathways to Recovery

A Unique Public Seminar Series

Scottish Addiction Studies
&
Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research

Sponsored by the Foundation for the Sociology of Health & Illness

Understanding Recovery and Treatment in the Policy Context

30th January 2008

Netta McIver, Chief Executive, Turning Point Scotland with:
Sophia Young & Tracy
Lundie

“Current issues in Scottish drug policy:
gaps in provision &
the Scottish attitude to recovery”.

2 - 4pm Iris Murdoch Bdg., University of Stirling.

Pathways to Recovery is a unique series of linked free public seminars exploring the nature of recovery. Full details, directions and programme available on the Pathways website or contact: 01786-467737/467723.

<http://www.dass.stir.ac.uk/old-site/DRUGS/pathways/index2.html>