

ImperialasOne

Imperial as One aims to assist the College in setting priorities and raising the profile of equality issues and ensure the experiences and views of staff at all levels are represented.

Lecture theatre 220,
Mechanical Engineering Building,
South Kensington Campus,
London SW7 2AZ

RSVP: The symposium is free, but with registration in advance. To book your place please contact: c.yates@imperial.ac.uk or telephone 020 7594 5558

Thursday
26 June 2008 •
14.00–17.00

SPECIAL SYMPOSIUM

Equality, practice and innovation

Imperial as One is pleased to announce this special event following a successful knowledge sharing symposium held in 2006 and the establishment of Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust in 2007.

The 2008 symposium aims to promote equality, good practice and innovation, and provides an exciting opportunity to hear from leading scientists and specialist practitioners across the academic spectrum.

Hosted by: Dr Sunday Popo-Ola
Senior Research and Teaching Fellow

Special guests: Professor Lord Darzi
Head of Surgical Oncology and Technology and Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Health

Professor Mervyn Maze
Head of Anaesthetics, Pain Medicine and Intensive Care

Professor Stephen Smith
Principal of the Faculty of Medicine and Chief Executive, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust

Professor Lord Winston
Professor of Science and Society

Facilitated by: Christine Yates
Equalities and Diversity Consultant

Other speakers include panel members from:

- ▶ NHS
- ▶ Higher education
- ▶ Further education
- ▶ Voluntary sector