

争取
中国
人权

HUMAN RIGHTS
FOR CHINA

Amnesty International

BRING A ROSE. BRING A FLAG. BRING A HEADBAND

DEMONSTRATE

WEDNESDAY 4 JUNE 2008

19TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE TIANANMEN SQUARE CRACKDOWN

Human rights defenders, activists and ordinary people in China are increasingly being repressed to ensure they are silenced before the start of the Beijing Olympic Games.

On 4 June, the 19th anniversary of the 1989 Tiananmen Square crackdown on China's pro-democracy movement, Amnesty members and others will gather to show our support for people like the Tiananmen Mothers – a group of human rights defenders whose children and other close relatives were killed or injured in the crackdown.

We want human rights for China. We want international pressure on the Chinese authorities not to react violently against people standing up for human rights.

SPEAKERS

Kate Allen, Director, Amnesty International UK

Wei Jingsheng, Overseas Chinese Democracy Coalition

Xia Ze, Director, Friends of Tiananmen Mothers in the UK

Shao Jiang, Former student leader from Tiananmen Square 1989

WHEN 6-7pm

WHERE Chinese Embassy, 49-51 Portland Place, London W1B 1JL
(nearest Tubes – Regents Park & Great Portland St)

WHAT YOU CAN DO Bring a rose. Bring a flag. Bring a headband. Visit our website for further details – and to find out how to make a flag or headband to bring to the demo.

Activism hotline: 020 7033 1675. Email: activism@amnesty.org.uk

www.amnesty.org.uk/china