

Donation for Victims in Sichuan Earthquake

Dear Sir / Madam:

As you may have noted recently, a terrible disaster has happened in Sichuan, China. The 7.9 earthquake there had buried cities and towns within minutes, in which latest figures of death toll had risen to 28,881, with more than 198,347 injured, and at least 12,300 still buried in debris. It is feared up to 50,000 people may have died.....Please give a hand, to help those victims out there!!! Please help to circulate this letter to those who are concerned and give a donation if you can. Every penny counts! Thank you very much for your help!
