

What should we remember about working in the industries of East & South East London?

WORKING LIVES OF THE THAMES GATEWAY CONFERENCE 2008

Reproduced with the kind permission of Ford Motor Company Limited

20th September 2008 10am – 4pm
London Metropolitan Archives
40 Northampton Road, Clerkenwell,
London, EC1R 0HB

Guest speakers

Billy Bragg, musician & activist: Englishness & Identity: the East London Working Class

Jerry White, historian: Migrant Communities of East London: Working Lives & Social Lives

Panel discussion and Q&A

Please RSVP to Maureen Roberts on 0207 332 3851 or Ima@cityoflondon.gov.uk
Please let us know if you plan to bring young people along.

Activities

What should we remember about working in the industries of East & South East London?
Have your say!

Reminiscence session for former workers:
Working life: Making ends meet or making friends for life?

Watch archive films of the local area

Archive workshops: How to research your family history and how to preserve your old photos, plus bring your historical documents to be analysed and scanned.

