

IHWTE

Institute for the History and Work of Therapeutic Environments
a research and study centre of the University of Birmingham hosted by the Planned Environment Therapy Trust

I am, They Are, We Will Be: Sustainability and Therapeutic Environments

October 17, 2008

Venue: Barns Conference Centre (PETT)
Toddington, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire GL54 5DQ.

Draft Programme

10.30 Registration, Tea and Coffee

10.40 Welcome and opening remarks.

10.45 "Education for Sustainable Development" Roger Firth, Lecturer, The School of Education, The University of Nottingham.

11.30 Adrian Friend, Design Tutor in Architecture, The University of Nottingham, and Architect Director of Friend and Company, London, a practice shortlisted for Young Architect of the Year. www.friendandcompany.co.uk

12.15 "Care Farming and Green Care" Rachel Hine, Assistant Director Centre for Environment and Society, University of Essex.

01.00 Lunch.

02.00 Keynote Speaker, TBC

02.30 "Green Therapy?" Rex Haigh, Consultant NHS Psychiatrist, joint editor of Therapeutic Communities: Past, Present and Future.

03.00 Tea.

03.15 Gary Winship, Associate Professor in the School of Education, University of Nottingham. Associate Editor of the Journal of Psychiatric & Mental Health Nursing Discussion:

How can we foster care for nature and the non-human in Education, Architecture and Therapeutic Environments?

04.00 Closing Remarks

Registration fee: £50 (Bursaries and accommodation available).

For further details and to register contact:

andrea.wheeler@nottingham.ac.uk

The University of Nottingham