

CRIME & CRIMINAL JUSTICE STATISTICS USERS GROUP CONFERENCE
29 April 2009 at the Royal Statistical Society
12 Errol Street, London, EC1Y 8LX

CONFIDENCE IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Draft Programme

- 0900 Registration and coffee
- 0945 Chair's Introduction
Prof. Mike Hough (Chair CCJSUG and King's College London)
- 1000 Why pursue confidence in justice?
Prof. David Smith (Visiting Professor, LSE)
- 1045 Tea and coffee
- 1115 Confidence in the police
- A new style of policing: the four pilot 'Flanagan' forces
ACC Douglas Paxton (Staffordshire Police)

- BCS measures of confidence in the police/local authorities
Home Office BCS team
- 1200 Panel discussion – the new arrangements for publishing statistics
- 1300 Lunch
- 1345 Legitimacy: how 'moral performance' works
Professor Alison Liebling (University of Cambridge)
- 1430 European perspectives on trust in justice
Prof Mike Hough (King's College London)
- 1500 Break
- 1515 Trust in the criminal process (CPS/courts/corrections)
- Jenny Turner (Office of Criminal Justice Reform)
- Kirstin Stewart (West Yorks Local Criminal Justice Board)
- Dr Jon Jackson - LSE
- 1600 Concluding discussion
- 1630 Close

To join our web-based user forum please visit:

<https://www.jiscmail.ac.uk/cgi-bin/webadmin?SUBED1=CRIM-BCS-USERS>