

Location Independent Working in an HE environment Conference

Two FREE one day conferences:

27th March 2009, Coventry University, Coventry

2nd April 2009, University of Leeds, Leeds

The Agenda

9.30 - 10.30	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS
10.30 - 10.45	Welcome by David Morris, Director of the Centre for the Study of Higher Education and Project Director
10.45 - 11.30	The Location Independent Working Scheme and how it was introduced, by Professor Denise Skinner, Associate Dean of the Faculty of Business, Environment and Society
11.30 - 11.45	BREAK AND REFRESHMENTS
11.45 - 12.30	The Participant and Non-Participant Perspective, by Nigel Berkeley and Dr David Jarvis Directors of the Applied Research Centre in Sustainable Regeneration
12.30 - 13.30	LUNCH
13.30 - 14.15	The Manager Perspective, By Nigel Briggs, Ex-Principal of Stratford College
14.15 - 14.30	The Student Perspective
14.30 - 14.45	BREAK AND REFRESHMENTS
14.45 - 15.10	Cost, Carbon and Economic Benefits of the Scheme, by Mark Abrams, Director of the Business Development Support Office
15.10 - 16.00	Panel discussion. You will be invited to raise questions with scheme participants, HR experts, Facilities managers, IT Support managers and training providers
16.00	END OF CONFERENCE

To Book: Simply e-mail us at

<mailto:e.connolly@cad.coventry.ac.uk?subject=LIW in HE Conference>

Please state which date you wish to attend from the two below and any special dietary requirements

27th March 2009, Coventry University TechnoCentre, Puma Way, Coventry, CV1 2TT

2nd April 2009, University of Leeds, Devonshire Hall, Cumberland Road, Leeds LS6 2EQ

