

The International Aid System in the Nile Basin Area

10 salaried research fellowships,
August - December 2009

The Nile Basin Research Programme invites researchers from Egypt, Sudan, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Rwanda, Burundi and the Democratic Republic of Congo to join the programme as part of a research group on the International Aid System, for a period of five months starting in August 2009.

Our aim is to bring together excellent researchers from the Nile Basin institutions working within this field. The researchers will stay at University of Bergen and receive a standard Norwegian salary.

The Nile Basin Research Programme (NBRP) is a strategic, multidisciplinary programme for research and education on topics related to the Nile Basin, located at the University of Bergen, Norway.

Application deadline: April 15th 2009.
