“The TOChina summer school is the place to be for all students interested in contemporary China”

Prof. Ian Taylor, University of St. Andrews

In July 2008, 35 professionals and students from all over the world gathered in Torino for an intensive course on China’s politics, international relations and political economy. Four continents and 16 countries were represented, including Australia, Britain, China, Germany, Japan, the Netherlands, Russia and Italy.

The blend of a vivacious international class, coupled with top-quality China experts in a relaxed atmosphere made the School a truly unique experience in Europe.

This summer a third edition of the School will run from June 29th to July 10th. The working language will be English and participation is open to any student or professional willing to brave the challenges of China’s peculiarity and complexity.

“Torino has a great deal to offer with its internationally renowned TOChina summer school”

Dr. Kent Deng, London School of Economics and Political Science

The program is suitable for both those wishing to study the domestic aspects of China’s politics and for those intending to explore the rapidly evolving dynamics of Asian and global geopolitics and economics.

The detailed programme is available online, with info being constantly updated. Applications will be accepted as from February 15th 2009. Just visit the School website.

Students may apply for one of 5 ZEROTASSE scholarships, waving tuition costs completely. Those who do not live in the Torino area can alternatively apply for one of the 10 FREETORINO scholarships, covering tuition, accommodation and, partially, meals for the duration of the stay in Torino.
