
MIGRATION LEARNING IN EUROPEAN SCHOOLS

A PRACTICAL APPROACH

using methods and materials on the topic of migration
as part of intercultural relations

COMENIUS COURSE REF: DE-2009-877-001

COURSE PROGRAMME

SUNDAY 20TH SEPTEMBER 2009 – arrival day

MONDAY 21ST SEPTEMBER 2009

Morning	-Welcome -Key note speaker -Ice-breaking activities, i.e. "my family history"
Afternoon 6 pm	Module: Communication in multilingual and multicultural classes cultural evening and dinner

TUESDAY – 22ND SEPTEMBER 2009

Morning:	Module: Migration history/ Museum visit
Afternoon: 8 pm	Museum visit then - free time dinner

WEDNESDAY 23RD SEPTEMBER 2009

Morning:	Lecture on Germany's school system; structural discrimination School visit
Afternoon: 8 pm	Module: Identity and Diversity Various methods get introduced acc. to different class room situation: classes with pupils with migration background; without migration background Dinner

THURSDAY 24TH SEPTEMBER 2009

Morning:	Module: Anti-Bias Approach: self-reflection; knowledge on individual, institutional, governmental discrimination
Afternoon	Continue: Anti-Bias after that: free time
8 pm	dinner

FRIDAY - 25TH SEPTEMBER 2009

Morning	Lecture: Different understandings of "culture" - Examination of "cultural" conflicts: role-play Module: romi people in Europe: different aspects of romi cultures; the role of schools in attracting roma parents
Afternoon:	International association: Learning Migration - Evaluation of the course - Certificates
8 pm	dinner

SATURDAY, 26TH OF SEPTEMBER 2009

	Departure
--	------------------