

37th Annual Conference of the European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control

‘Crime’, Justice, and Control: The challenge of recession

Conference Programme

26th –29th August 2009
University of Central Lancashire, Preston, United Kingdom

Programme Overview

Wednesday, 26th August 2009

Afternoon Registration
Colloquium in memory of Louk Hulsman

Thursday, 27th August 2009

Morning Registration
Open forum on Immigration
Global freedom, local repressions and diversity panel (1)

Afternoon Parallel sessions 1 and 2
Recession, punishment and the control society panel (2)
Performance by Charlie Ryder

Friday, 28th August

Morning Justice in transition and alternative justice paradigms panel (3)
Parallel session 3

Afternoon Excursion

Saturday, 29th August

Morning Open forum on terrorism
Crime, harm and political economy Panel (4)
Parallel sessions 4

Afternoon EG regional meetings
Parallel session 5
Transitional Justice Panel (5)

Programme - Wednesday 26th August 2009

Venue: Greenbank foyer

1pm	Registration
-----	--------------

Venue: Greenbank Lecture theatre

2.45 pm	Opening of conference: David Scott and Rachel McErlain
3.10 pm	Penal abolitionism and the ontological reality of 'crime' A colloquium dedicated to the life and work of Louk Hulsman Introduction by Barbara Hudson
3.30 pm	Stan Cohen
4.30 pm	Jehanne Hulsman 'Louk Hulsman, a perpetual garden and the absence of time'
5 pm	Refreshments
5.20 pm	Andrea Beckmann Reading abolitionism through life
5.40 pm	Vincenzo Ruggiero 'Hulsman's Abolitionism: Between Social Christianity and Anarchism'
6 pm	Open session for contributions from the floor

Programme - Thursday 27th August 2009

Time	Venue	Activity
9am	Harrington refectory	Open forum: Universities Should Not be Complicit in Policing Immigration! Led by Scott Poynting and Steve Tombs
11.15am	Greenbank Lecture theatre	Global freedom, local repressions and diversity panel (1) Speakers including: Scott Poynting Manchester Metropolitan University 'We are all in Guantanamo: Global freedom, local repressions and diversity'
12.15 pm	Harrington refectory	Buffet lunch
1 pm	Greenbank 204, 276, 278	Parallel sessions 1
2.30 pm	Greenbank Foyer	Refreshments
3 pm	Greenbank 204, 276, 278	Parallel sessions 2
4.30 pm	Greenbank Lecture theatre	Recession, punishment and the control society panel (2) Speakers including: Eric Allison Prisons correspondent, The Guardian
6 pm	Greenbank Lecture theatre	Performance by Charlie Ryder, performance artist from the Anne Peaker Centre for Arts In Criminal Justice.

Programme - Friday 28th August 2009

Time	Venue	Activity
9 am	Greenbank Lecture theatre	Justice in transition and alternative justice paradigms panel (3) Speakers including: Barbara Hudson University of Central Lancashire
10 am	Harrington Refectory	Open forum: 'Teaching on Terrorism' Led by Dave Whyte and Vicki Sentas
11.15 am	Greenbank 204, 276, 278	Parallel sessions 3
12.45 pm	Harrington Refectory	Buffet Lunch
1.30 pm		Excursions options: Canal Trip and band playing classics from the 1940s. Other options available, see tourist information handout in conference pack.
7 pm	Tinos restaurant, Hill Street Preston (See map)	Conference meal at Tinos Restaurant with internationally renowned Jazz band.

Programme - Saturday 29th August 2009

Time	Venue	Activity
10 am	Greenbank Lecture Theatre	Crime, harm and political economy panel (4) Speakers including: Steve Tombs Liverpool John Moores University Crime, regulation and welfare: Harm at work
11 am	Greenbank Foyer	Refreshments
11.30 am	Greenbank 204, 276, 278	Parallel sessions 4
1 pm	Harrington refectory / Greenbank 204, 276, 278	Buffet Lunch / European Group regional meetings
2pm	Greenbank 204, 276, 278	Parallel sessions 5
3 pm	Greenbank Lecture theatre	Justice, Law and (post) Conflict panel (5) Promoting (in)justice in Sierra Leone Andrew M. Jefferson Amnesty and the Limitations of Legalism Louise Mallinder The Forgotten Ones: Transitional Justice and Power Relations in Rwanda Yolande Bouka
4pm	Greenbank Lecture theatre / Greenbank 204	Close of Conference / European Group regional meetings feedback

Other confirmed speakers include:

- Antonio Muñoz Aunión - University Autonoma de Tamaulipas Mexico
Neo-Colonialism and Globalisation as culprits of current migratory Movements
- Jamie Bennett - HMP Morten Hall
Comparing approaches to imprisonment being proposed in England & Wales and Scotland
- Eamonn Carrabine - University of Essex
'The Moral Significance of the Media: For an Ethics of Representation'
- Claire Edmondson - University of Central Lancashire and New Zealand Police
Women's Imprisonment and the Impact of the Recession
- Christina Ericson - The National Board for Health and Welfare, Stockholm
Batterer intervention programmes in Sweden – a description of an evaluation project.
- Sue Evans - University of Central Lancashire
Desperate Economic Times Means Desperate Measures: Forced Marriage as a Care Option plan.
- Stratos Georgoulas - University of the Aegean
Title: Leisure, Market and Crime in Greece: A Critical approach
- Maria Kaspersson - University of Greenwich
When Deterrence Works – and When it Doesn't. A comparison on Sweden's prostitution law and the UK's Dangerous Dogs Act
- Christos Kouroutzas and Aggeliki Kitsiou - University of the Aegean.
Social Networking Sites and Social Control. The case of "Facebook".
- John Moore - University of the West of England
Why punishment fails: excavating the imperial and slave roots of the modern penal system
- Martin O'Brien - University of Central Lancashire
"Animals that from a long way off look like flies", or: RAT on a sinking ship
- Dimos Saradidis - University of the Aegean
A critical examination of "Police Culture" in Greece
- Ragnhild Sollund - NOVA (Norwegian Social Research)
Philippine labour migrants working as au pairs in Norway: The costs of care chains and how to overcome them.
- Basia Spalek - University of Birmingham
Preventing Terror Crime: policing in a glocalised context.
- Mike Sutton - Nottingham Trent University
Selling Stolen Goods Is A Recession Proof Industry
- Dr. David Tyrer - Liverpool John Moores University and Dr. Tina Patel - University of Salford
'Community cohesion' and the 'war on terror' in post-MacPherson UK – The continuation of racial profiling in construction of dangerous others
- Ekaterina Tishchenko and Anna Karasova - The South Federal University, Russia
Economic crisis and criminality: problems of mutual influence.
- Tony Ward - University of Hull
Title: Justifying Transitional and International Justice
- Dr Richard Wild - University of Greenwich
Relative truth, misrepresentations, spin, cover-up and denial: Unpicking government utterances on extraordinary rendition
- Mavrou Zena - University of the Aegean
Criminal Justice Courts in Greece. Study case: the "rapper" in the island of Lesbos