Friday 24 July 2009

KS 3 and Beyond

Sunderland Museum

& Winter Gardens

Burdon Road, Sunderland SR1 1PP

Through a series of exciting speakers, workshops and case studies museum educators can find out about new and innovative ways of working with secondary schools.

Thursday 3 September 2009

Science in the Museum

Discovery Museum

Blandford Square

Newcastle NE1 4JA

A practical day which will explore delivering science in museums.

Friday 18 September 2009

Museums for Writing

Segedunum Roman Fort,

Baths & Museum

Buddle Street, Wallsend NE28 6HR

Improving writing ability is high on the government agenda, with many pupils failing to achieve the expected writing level for their age. This development day will focus on how the experience of a museum visit can help develop writing skills and give pupils more confidence in their own abilities as writers.

Book now for practical workshops, talks and debates.

These workshops are ideal for anyone who works with schools or families in museums.

Friday 13 November 2009

E-Learning

Discovery Museum

Blandford Square

Newcastle NE1 4JA

The E-Learning development day will focus on the use of digital technology within the heritage sector, for example podcasting, interactive whiteboards, web 2.0 resources. The talks and workshops will offer advice and examples of how the technologies can be used effectively to engage audiences and raise the profile of your projects.

Wednesday 25 November 2009
