2nd Joint Conference

Extending the family: inter-cultural issues in Britain

Asian Family Counselling Service and Nafsiyat Inter-cultural Therapy Centre invite you to our 2nd joint conference on inter-cultural therapy.

Aimed at mental health and social care professionals and trainees this conference aims to unpack notions of 'family' and explore how changing family structures impact on inter-cultural psychotherapy and counselling.

The conference will feature a combination of lectures, discussions and practice oriented workshops from professionals and academics in the field of mental health and culture.
