

Museums and Young People

National Museum Cardiff, Oriel Suite
Thursday 26th November 2009, 10.30 – 4.00

Explore new and exciting ways of using heritage and culture as themes for project work with young people. This training day will feature a diverse range of sessions including:

- 'The History of Sex' South West Museums Stories of the World Project (part of the Cultural Olympiad)
- Top tips for funding your project from the Development Department, Amgueddfa Cymru - National Museum Wales
- Neil Reid, Hirwaun YMCA, featuring 'The Road to Tower'
- Natalie Brown, Newport Youth Service
- Hannah Davies, Treorchy Comprehensive E3 Coordinator

Full programme to follow.

Why attend?

- To explore new approaches to working with young people
- To discover inspiration, support and useful partnerships
- To find out more about funding opportunities
- To network and share best practice

Who is it for?

- Museum, library and gallery educators
- Youth workers
- Arts development workers
- Community Artists
- Local authorities, including Communities First youth development teams
- Anyone interested in making their services relevant to young people

Fee - £20 Gem members, £30 non-members. This will include tea/coffee and lunch.

Please contact alun.jones@museumwales.ac.uk for a booking form / further information.