

Enhancing Strategies for Global Quality Learning in Higher Education

First Call for Submissions

Opening October 15th at www.iced2010.org

The ICED 2010 Conference will provide an opportunity to explore the diverse range of approaches and contexts for academic development with a strong focus on Quality Learning. The proposed theme focuses on three deeply embedded issues in ICED Higher Education's concerns:

- ✓ Quality learning
- ✓ Global quality
- ✓ Enhancing strategies for development

Check our web page for the submission form and general regulations and policies

The deadline for the submission of proposals is
