Call for Papers

The Committee of the Fourth International Graduate Legal Research Conference (IGLRC) invites abstracts for consideration. The Conference will take place over two days in the heart of London's legal quarter, and will host papers from those excelling in postgraduate legal research across Europe and the world. It will provide a forum for debate, the exchange of ideas, and the furtherance of knowledge. The sessions will be chaired by leading academics and practitioners in each field. The topics to be covered by the Conference include, but are not limited to:

- Criminology and Criminal Justice
- European Union Law
- Medical Law
- International Law and Human Rights
- WTO and International Trade Law
- Competition Law
- Constitutional Law and Theory
- Family Law
- Commercial and Contract Law
- Intellectual Property Law
- Legal Theory

Abstracts should be no more than 350 words in length and should be accompanied by a brief curriculum vitae. This year submissions will only be accepted via the Submissions Form on our website: www.iglrc.com.

The closing date for receipt of abstracts is Tuesday, 15th December 2009 and successful applicants will be informed by 1st February 2010. The authors of abstracts selected for presentation will be expected to submit completed papers (with a maximum length of 6,000 words) by 15th March 2010.

Any enquiries may be sent to submissions@iglrc.com. However, please note that submissions sent by email will not be considered for the Conference.
