

JAPANESE SASHIKO TEXTILES

Symposium

Wednesday 18th November 2009
The Hospitium, Museum Gardens, York
11am– 5pm

Evening reception, York Art Gallery
5.30–7.30pm

To celebrate the new exhibition Japanese Sashiko Textiles, York Museums Trust is hosting a one-day symposium — a chance to learn more about Michele Walker's fascinating research and hear from artists and experts.

In addition to Michele, speakers include textile designer Rebecca Earley, artist Rebecca Salter—an expert in Japanese prints and symbols and Ushida-Findlay architect Kathryn Findlay. The day will be Chaired by Jennifer Harris, Curator of Textiles / Deputy Director of the Whitworth Art Gallery.

Tickets cost £40 (£20 for students)

Refreshments, lunch and glass of wine (at the evening reception) are included.

To book a place please telephone 01904 650333

Deadline for bookings: Friday 13th November

JAPANESE SASHIKO TEXTILES

SYMPOSIUM

Wednesday 18 November 2009
The Hospitium
Yorkshire Museum Gardens

For more information, contact: Jennifer Alexander - jennifer.alexander@ymt.org.uk

York Art Gallery

THE FRIENDS OF YORK ART GALLERY

LOTTERY FUNDED

Esmée
Fairbairn
FOUNDATION