

UK Learning Spaces Special Interest Group
Universities of Brighton and Sussex, Brighton

Tuesday 15 December 2009, 10:00-16:00

University of Brighton, CETL through Design, 58-67 Grand Parade, Brighton, BN2 2JY

10:00 a.m.	Registration and tea/coffee
10:15 a.m.	Welcome and introductions Hilary Smith, Learning Spaces Project, CETLD University of Brighton
10:45 a.m.	Tour of the CETLD Spaces To include project activity and focus on learning space evaluation. Interactive discussions of participants' own progress in this area should be stimulated by this activity.
12:00 noon	Move to University of Sussex, InQbate: CETL in Creativity for Lunch InQbate, Department of Informatics, University of Sussex, Falmer Campus, BN1 9QH
13:15 p.m.	Welcome by Tom Hamilton, Director, InQbate.
13:20 p.m.	Participant Sharing Session Exhibition of participant projects/ current work through series of slideshows/ weblinks within space, followed by facilitated discussion around emergent themes. This will focus on status of current work and issues around embedding innovation within the institution.
14:00 p.m.	Demonstration of the Sussex InQbate creativity zone Outlining individual elements, overall approach and key events and activities.
15:15 p.m.	Lessons learned and next steps for SIG Reflection on the day and plans for next SIG meeting.
15:45 p.m.	Transport back to Brighton for 16:00 close

To register your interest or for additional information, please contact Debbie Hickmott
 CETLD Administrator (cetldadministrator@brighton.ac.uk) by Tuesday 8 December.

Please note that places are limited.