JOIN THE MANCHESTER DEBATE

‘IS THE EU GOOD FOR BRITAIN?’

MANCHESTER: 21 JANUARY 2010

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office invites you to join the audience and participate in a stimulating and frank discussion on a subject that so often divides opinion and provokes lively debate: whether the European Union is good or bad for Britain.

Your opinion counts and we'd like to hear it. We're looking for a diverse audience that includes businesses, education, and communities, as well as members of the public.

The event will be chaired by a well-known TV personality. And a Foreign Office Minister will be joined on the panel by a cross-section of leading public opinion formers with a variety of views from the region and beyond.

The debate, which takes place early evening at a central Manchester location, will last an hour. Due to security arrangements, we will inform you on the exact timings and venue nearer the time.

Audience places will be limited so get your application in early.

Please get your application in by the 15th January. To do this you need to fill in the form included in this letter and email it to eucommunications@fco.gov.uk. Or if you prefer, give us a call and we'll take your details over the phone 0207 008 3347. You can also register online at www.europe.gov.uk. We'll let you know whether you have a place in the audience by the 18th January.
