

Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis Workshops 2010

Advanced IPA Workshop - Mon 29th March 2010

This workshop is intended for those who already have experience using IPA that want to further consolidate their understanding of IPA, develop ideas for more complex IPA designs or work with unusual data sets. We require that those wishing to attend this session have some of their own data that they are currently analyzing to work on during the session.

Facilitated by: Virginia Eatough (Birkbeck College, University of London) and Richard De-Visser (University of Sussex)
Fee: £130

IPA Trainers - Mon 29th March 2010

This workshop is intended for those who teach IPA or supervise IPA research projects. It will assume a basic level of knowledge of IPA and will focus on ways of presenting IPA to students, tips for practical exercises and techniques for conducting and writing up an IPA research project. Delegates must be engaged in (or about to be engaged in) teaching or supervising IPA.

Facilitated by: Jonathan Smith (Birkbeck College, University of London) and Michael Larkin (University of Birmingham)
Fee: £130

Introduction to IPA - Wed 31st March - Thurs 1st April 2010

This 2 day event is intended for those new to IPA. It will provide a thorough introduction to the philosophical underpinnings of IPA research, IPA research design, semi-structured interviewing, phenomenological and interpretative coding in analysis, writing up and validity checks. To book overnight accommodation at Aston University contact Raj Biran directly on r.biran@aston.ac.uk.

Facilitated by: Paul Flowers (Glasgow Caledonian University) and Rachel Shaw (Aston University)
Fee: £200

For further information about the workshops contact Rachel Shaw
e-mail: r.l.shaw@aston.ac.uk
tel: 0121 2044050

A number of bursaries worth £100 funded by the Qualitative Methods in Psychology Section are available for this event. To apply for a bursary please complete the bursary application form and return it with your registration form to Julia Brown.

Please tick which course you would like to register for:

Advanced IPA Workshop

IPA Trainers

Introduction to IPA

Registration form for Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis Workshops 2010

Name: Job Title:

Organisation:

Address:

Telephone No: e-mail:

Special requirements:

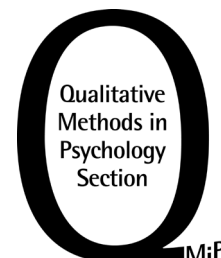

Name and address of person to invoice:

Purchase order number:

Workshop	Tick (please tick the right workshop For you)	Please describe in a couple of sentences your relevant experience for the workshop you wish to attend
Mon 29th March 2010 Advanced IPA Workshop Delegates at the advanced workshop must have experience of using IPA and must have data they are current analyzing £130 To pay
Mon 29th March 2010 IPA Trainers Delegates at the trainers Workshop must be engaged In (or about to be engaged in) teaching or supervision of IPA £130 To pay
Wed 31st March 2010 - Thurs 1st April 2010 Introduction to IPA Workshop £200 To pay

To register for this course please complete this form and send it to Dr. Julia Y Brown, Director of Business & Marketing, School of Life & Health Sciences, Aston University, Birmingham, B4 7ET. If paying your own fee, please send a cheque made payable to Aston University.

For further details about this course please do not hesitate to telephone 0121 204 3908 or e-mail j.y.brown@aston.ac.uk

The BPS Qualitative Methods in Psychology Section (QMIP) has kindly agreed to fund up to 30 bursaries to the value of £100. Bursaries are available to members of QMiP who are students or unwaged, in the first instance, on receipt of an acceptable application form. Other QMiP members wishing to attend who cannot gain funding from their employer or elsewhere may put forward a case to receive a bursary, availability permitting. Applications received will be judged by the QMiP committee.

If you are not a member of QMiP, but are a member of the BPS, you can join for the bargain price of £10 (waged) or £5 (unwaged). You can download an application form from the QMiP website: www.bps.org.uk/qmip/

For further information contact Rachel Shaw, Honorary Secretary of QMiP (r.l.shaw@aston.ac.uk; 0121 2044050).

Name: BPS membership number:
 Organisation:
 Address:
 Telephone No: e-mail:
 Name of employer/Place of study:
 Position (lecturer, researcher, PhD student etc.):

Workshop attending (please tick box) Introduction to IPA Advanced IPA IPA Trainers
 Would you still attend the workshop if you did NOT receive a bursary (please tick box)? YES NO DON'T KNOW

Programme of research – please describe your current research activity

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Need for training in IPA – please describe why you would benefit from this workshop

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Case to receive a bursary for those in employment – if you cannot obtain funds elsewhere please state your case for receiving a bursary. Include evidence of previous attempts to obtain funding.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Please send this completed form with your registration form to Dr Julia Brown. A place will be provisionally reserved for you. If your application for a bursary is approved you will be asked to pay the reduced fee to secure your place. If not, you will be given the option of retaining your place by paying the full fee. Once payment is received your place will be confirmed.

Please send to: Dr Julia Brown, School of Life & Health Sciences, Aston University, Aston Triangle, Birmingham, B4 7ET. E-mail: j.y.brown@aston.ac.uk or Tel: 0121 2043908.

