

Linking Teaching, Learning, Research and Innovation

For the 21st Century

Learning & Teaching Conference
2010

LEARNING & TEACHING CONFERENCE

FRIDAY 26th MARCH 2010

EDINBURGH BUSINESS SCHOOL,

HERIOT-WATT UNIVERSITY

For further information visit:

<http://www.hw.ac.uk/edu/conferences2.html>

The conference will:

- Showcase innovations in teaching across Heriot-Watt University, in particular those linked to Heriot-Watt's Academic Enhancement Framework.
- Highlight initiatives to improve the student experience by creating opportunities for graduates to develop the attributes they will need to be leaders in the 21st Century.
- Investigate key themes of linking teaching with research, broadening the curriculum, internationalising the curriculum and linking it to a global environmental and development agenda, developing leadership qualities in students, improving the first year experience, focusing on formative assessment - and much more.

If you have been involved in initiatives to improve the student experience at Heriot-Watt why not submit a paper – or come along and hear about the exciting things your colleagues are involved in.
