

How can collaboration between museums / archives and schools support the new primary curriculum?

Tuesday 27th April

10.00 am - 4.00 pm

Becket's Chapel
Peterborough Cathedral

The New Primary Curriculum

What is the new curriculum? What does it mean for schools?
What is the impact for museums / archives?

A whole day event for all staff from museums and archives, and partners from other sectors, wishing to explore how the New Primary Curriculum will impact on learning in schools and opportunities for the sector to help develop innovative and exciting learning programmes to support the needs of schools, teachers and pupils.

The day will include:

- An overview of the key changes in the curriculum,
- The school perspective
- Consideration into how museums and archives can meet the needs of teachers and learners
- Case studies showing how to re-package and adapt existing services and opportunities for new developments

For more information contact

Vikki Pearson

vikki@themightycreatives.com

Tel: 0116 2533 464

To book please visit the MLA website

www.mla.gov.uk/what/programmes/commissioning/CPD

Museums Libraries &
Archives

