

CONFERENCE 2010

HE Technical skills for the next decade

A one-day conference for Technicians, Technical Specialists,
Technical Managers, Human Resources and Staff Development professionals sponsored by the HEaTED project.

The conference aims to not only outline our vision for the next ten years, but also to explore partnerships and strategies across HE that will deliver world class UK technical services, and provide our students with the best possible learning support.

I do hope that you will be able to join us for a fantastic, and hopefully memorable and groundbreaking day, and contribute to the continuing evolution of HEaTED. Your continued support is vital.

PRICE: Staff from HEaTED Member Institutions: £80.00
Staff from non HEaTED Member Institutions: £120.00
