

Think Tank Event

Venue: Norwich University College of the Arts, Duke Street Building, Lecture Theatre

Thursday 24 June 2010
HEA InCurriculum

‘Transformations’: Inclusion, retention and engagement for the HE curriculum.

The ‘Transformations’ is a Think Tank event aimed at:

- curriculum designers and managers
- module leaders
- assessment tutors
- academic and support staff with responsibility for advancing learning, teaching and assessment
- Institutional policy makers

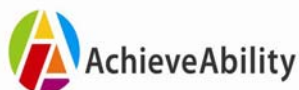

‘Transformations’ has been organised to discuss practical measures for developing and disseminating inclusive practice, and effectively incorporating these to enrich the student experience.

The key discussion points will contribute to the final HEA report for the InCurriculum National Teaching Fellowship project. Participant contributions will be of key value to the emergent practice and inform institutional policy making.

Think Tank programme:

11.30 am	Registration
11.50 am	Welcome
12.00 pm	Working groups
1.00 pm	Lunch
2.00 pm	Working groups and feedback
3.00 pm	Refreshments
3.15pm	Keynote speaker
3.45pm	Networking and Close

Bookings: Please contact Yvonne Moore, on 01603 610561 ext 6324 or email y.moore@nuca.ac.uk

Think Tank Event : InCurriculum is a Higher Education Academy National Teaching Fellowship action research project which aims to develop inclusive, transferable policy and practice to inform teaching, learning and assessment within Higher Education curricula.

