Project Officer

New Young Suffolk Museum Volunteers £9,000 on a freelance basis over 16 months

This is fixed term from Sept 2010 - Jan 2012. Hours will fluctuate across the project, often involve non-office time and take about 60 days worth of time overall.

We are looking for a creative and enthusiastic project officer to ensure a good level and quality of youth participation in a project involving 5 Suffolk museums and the Young Suffolk Involved Team Programme.

You will be able to demonstrate successful project management and have relevant experience of working in one or more of the following settings; schools, youth work, and museums. You will be able to travel across the county and receive travel expenses in addition to your fee.

If you are a self-motivated person who likes variety, working in partnership and are enthusiastic about working with museum collections, then this could be the ideal opportunity for you.

For an informal discussion, or to request further details and an application form, contact Lyn Gash, Secretary for the Association for Suffolk Museums on (01473) 265241 or email: lyn.gash@suffolk.gov.uk

Closing date: Midday, 6 September, 2010.

Interview date: 13 September, 2010 (in Ipswich).
