

SILC Annual Forum

Friday 15th October 2010

The Geological Society of London, Burlington House

The Specialist in Land Condition (SiLC) Register is an accreditation for experienced practitioners working in land condition (contaminated land, regeneration, development). The scheme has developed progressively, establishing an important role in improving quality and standards across the sector.

The SiLC Annual Forum is open to all and presents an opportunity for SiLCs and other professionals to meet informally, and hear topical presentations from a range of guest speakers.
