

SPEAKERS:

Philip Hoare, James Putnam, Jochem Hendricks, Gavin Turk, Tessa Farmer, Mariele Neudecker

PROVENANCE SYMPOSIUM

DATE: 05/10/10

TIME: 10.45 - 20.00

COST: £40 / Students £15

VENUE: Bath School of Art & Design,
Bath Spa University, Sion Hill,
Lansdown, Bath, BA1 5SF

SPONSORED BY:

The Henry Moore Foundation

PROVENANCE Is a symposium exploring the relationship with the history and ethics of collecting natural specimens, and the implications of a sense of collective conscience. It addresses questions posed by a collision of the past, present and future of such collections. Provenance also examines the act of 'reading' a collection in the absence of the original collector, and the extent to which one's interest in a collection re-examines any curatorial or objective agendas.

Exhibition continues to 27th October 2010 at Sion Hill, Bath School of Art & Design Gallery
Tel: 01225 875533 and at Corsham Court, Corsham, Wiltshire, SN13 0BZ. Tel: 01225 876383