Living in Barking – Hidden from History

Documentary Film and touring exhibition

Friday 8th October 7pm
Eastbury Manor House,
Eastbury Square, Barking

Dr Bala Prasad (1893-1959) was born in India, where he trained at medical college graduating in the early years of World War I. He welcomed the founding of the National Health Service, was a Socialist and a supporter of Indian Independence.

The project is working with the Barking and Dagenham BAME forum, and Valence House Museum to document a hidden history of Dr Prasad, and the local BAME community living today in Barking.

This event is free.
