Investing in Academic Excellence: Up to 75 Fully- Funded Doctoral Studentships

Full details, including eligibility and application procedures can be found at www.city.ac.uk/studentships

We would particularly welcome applications from suitably-qualified women and candidates from minority ethnic groups who are under-represented in many areas of research.

City University London is continuing its investment in academic excellence by offering up to 75 fully-funded, full-time, 3-year Doctoral Studentships commencing in October 2011.

Applications are sought from exceptional UK and overseas graduates and are particularly welcome in the following areas:

- business and management
- computer science
- cultural policy and management
- economics
- engineering and mathematics
- food policy
- information science
- language and communication science
- law, justice and journalism
- music
- nursing and midwifery
- optometry and visual science
- psychology
- sociology.

The studentships will fund tuition fees and maintenance (a minimum of £15,000 per annum in 2011/12).

Successful candidates will usually be expected to undertake some teaching support in their second and third years. Support for the development of research skills is also provided.

Main closing date: Monday 31 January 2011
