

BIOCENTRE

MAKING THINGS BETTER 2011

Free Lecture and Seminar Series

MODERNITY AND WELLBEING

Thursdays
16.00 - 17.30
Stevenson
Lecture Theatre
British Museum

Thursday, January 13, 2011

"Targeting the Empowered Individual: HIV/AIDS, Transnational Policy-Making, and Local Moral Worlds in Tanzania"

Hansjoerg Dilger, Freie Universität Berlin

Thursday, February 10, 2011

"The Bionic Person: The Limits of Technology for Human Wellbeing"

Kevin Warwick, University of Reading

& Daniela Cerqui, University of Lausanne

Thursday, March 10, 2011

"Brave New World Meets Third World: Darfour's Challenges of Empowerment and Wellbeing"

Abdullahi El-Thom, National University of Ireland, Maynooth

Thursday, May 12, 2011

"Citizenship and Social Responsibility: Engaged Anthropology and Organ Trafficking in a Bio-technical Era"

Nancy Scheper-Hughes, University of California, Berkeley

THE BRITISH MUSEUM

UCL Grand Challenges

welcome trust

For further details on the series telephone the British Museum Box office (020 7323 8181) or email Dr. Olga Lupu, Centre for Applied Global Citizenship, UCL (o.lupu@ucl.ac.uk)