Registration Fee:

The registration fee is £20.00 per person. This is payable through our paypal account.

The fee includes tea/coffee and lunch on both days, transport and refreshments at the Wine and Whisky reception, and a free place on the fieldtrip. The Wine and Whisky reception will be held at Govan Old Parish Church which houses an impressive collection of early medieval sculpture.

Fieldtrip:

The fieldtrip will take place on Friday 27th May. We will be stopping at Dunning parish church to see the 9th century Dupplin cross, Meigle Pictish Stone museum, Dunkeld Cathedral, and Muthill 11th century church tower.

Attendance on the fieldtrip is included in the conference registration cost. However, be aware that places are limited, and we will work on a first-come, first-served basis. You must be sure to state whether you wish to book a place on the fieldtrip when paying the registration fee.

We are organising a group lunch in Dunkeld of soup, sandwich and tea/coffee. If you wish to partake of the group lunch this will be an additional £7.00. If you have any dietary requirements please contact us and we will try to arrange alternative options: emass2011@gmail.com

Book Offer:

The Society for Medieval Archaeology is offering a reduced cost on Sally Foster and Morag

Cross's monograph: Able Minds and Practised Hands: Scotland's Early Medieval Sculpture in the 21st Century. If pre-ordered and paid at the time of EMASS registration this monograph can be yours for only £15.00!
