

JISC RSC Wales Online Summer Bytes 21st – 23rd June

JISC RSC Wales introduces its inaugural online e-Learning event 'Summer Bytes'. This FREE event comprises of twelve, 45 minute sessions delivered over three days. Sign up once and take part in to as many sessions as you wish. The programme addresses a variety of topics delivered by subject specialists.

Tuesday 21st June

- Future scenarios for Blended Learning - Niall Sclater (Open University)
- SharePoint - Hannah Mathias (St Davids College)
- Raising the Bar: the new challenges for quality & collaboration - Marian Jebb (Welsh Assembly Government)
- Practical Issues with video learning delivery - Glenda Davies (Coleg Meirion Dwyfor)

Wednesday 22nd June

- Using crowd sourcing & social learning networks - Robin Trangmar (Coleg Llandrillo)
- The delivery of learning materials to geographically remote learners - Jeff Lewis (UWIC)
- Changing green behaviour through ICT - Geoff Elliott (Pembrokeshire College)
- Turning up the HEAT 4 Wales - Simon Ball & Terry McAndrew (JISC TECHDIS)

Thursday 23rd June

- You 2.0 - Richard Speight (Cartrefi Cymru)
- Connecting Learners - Safe Social Networking for accessibility, inclusion & communication –Siona Murray (Coleg Llandrillo)
- Welsh Information Literacy Project - Joy Head (Cardiff University)
- Don't let the Safeguarding Bugs Byte - JISC Legal

More details on each of the sessions can be found in the Online Summer Bytes Programme

Please visit the events page on our website to book your place on the event and choose which sessions you wish to participate in.

<http://admin.rsc-wales.ac.uk/events>

JISC RSC Wales
01792 295959
events@rsc-wales.ac.uk