

Save the Date!

Friday 24 June 2011

The Art of Industry Industrial Art Symposium

The National Coal Mining Museum for England and Woodhorn Museum are pleased to invite you to this special event as we celebrate the relationship between art and Britain's industrial heritage.

Held at the home of the Ashington Group in Woodhorn, listen to presentations from:

William Feaver, art critic and Trustee of the Ashington Group Collection

Dr Robert McManners and Gillian Wales, mining art historians and writers

Discover more about the art of industry with contributions from the National Railway Museum, Leeds Art Gallery and the National Coal Mining Museum for England.

The Art of Industry is supported by Seeing the Whole Picture, a project funded through the Collecting Cultures scheme, a Heritage Lottery Fund initiative.

Cost (including refreshments) £12.00
Concessions (students and non-waged) £8.00

For further information or to book e-mail:
Imogen.holmesroe@ncm.org.uk

© Martin Jenkinson

© The Freeth Family

Supported by
The National Lottery
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

